CITY/TOWN DESCRIPTION

Lake King is named for the major feature of the area, Lake King, and is located five and a half hours' drive east of Perth and 67 kms north-west of Ravensthorpe. Lake King is ideally situated as a stopover for travellers crossing arid country between Perth, Esperance and the Nullarbor Plain. Lake King is home to only a very small community, with a population of 219 people within Lake King and the surrounding area. The nearest towns are Lake Grace - 113kms west or Ravensthorpe - 73kms south/south east.

Lake King is a major grain growing region, the main crops being wheat, canola, barley and lupins. Cattle and sheep are also raised, the cattle for meat and the sheep for both meat and wool. The town marks the point where a formed gravel road takes a shortcut across immense inland sand flats to Norseman, and although there are no services for over 300 kilometres, it does pass through the interesting arid wilderness contained by Frank Hahn National Park. Lake King is in the middle of salt lake country and is noted for its amazing and spectacular wildflower display each spring, as well as access to the Rabbit Proof Fence and the rock climber's favourite, Peak Charles.

The area's salt lakes form a chain, believed to be the remnants of an ancient river system, formed during the early tertiary period (some 60 million years ago), when the climate was supposedly wetter than it is at present. The area has a temperate climate, with cool evenings and an average annual rainfall of 340 mm.

GENERAL DESCRIPTION

The Lake King Sports Pavilion as the name suggests is a sporting club adjacent to the grassed sports playing field, netball/basketball courts and tennis courts in Lake King. The sports pavilion, built in 1971, is a very small but well looked after. The venue has a main sports club room, female dressing room facilities and 2 male change room facilities (footy club change room style). The venue has a large BBQ function area at the rear of the venue. This venue is right next door to the Lake King Pioneer Memorial Hall and hence I can not see it being of great use for any sort of performing arts or touring shows.

The venue is licensed to hold 93 people in the function space and has a kitchen for catering or running "canteen" type activities. The venue has approximately 70 chairs, 10 square function tables, 2 trestle tables, a Mipro "spruikers" PA system with mic, 2 x white boards and a TV.

The floor is tiled throughout, fluros in the ceiling and a bar has been built into the centre of the room. The acoustics in the venue are quite acceptable. As this is a sports club, as you would expect, there are windows right across the front of the building facing out to the sports playing field and hence no blackout is possible for performances.

The venue has both male and female toilets suitable in size to match the venue's capacity and a disability toilet is also available.

There is no entertainment technical equipment in this venue at all.

Venue load in is via the car park, along the front veranda and through a set of double doors into the venue. It's a flat load in with no stairs. There is no entertainment power (3phase) available. There are very few single phase GPO's around the stage area or venue.

TOURING TIPS

- This venue is really designed solely for sports use and clubhouse type use and hence does not suit touring shows or performances. I would recommend using the Lake King Pioneer Memorial Hall just next door to this venue instead.

As with many regional venues this is the type of venue where you collect the keys (from the local school next door) and are left to your own devices.
